

Wednesday 12th June 7.30

Bohemian Rhapsody

Bohemian Rhapsody is a foot-stomping celebration of Queen, their music and their extraordinary lead singer Freddie Mercury.

Tickets £4

Tolmen Movies

Saturday 15th June 7.30

McQuarrie and Toms

Winners of the 2017 International Pan Celtic Duo competition in Ireland, MacQuarrie and Toms has performed to large festival crowds throughout the UK and Europe. With "charged fiddle and acoustic guitar" the Cornish duo blends original, Cornish and Celtic music with rich bass lines, loops and harmonies.

Tickets £9

Friday 28th June 7.30

David William Brian

In Loyal Company

Bursting with energy and bold theatrical strokes, David William Bryan tells the true story of his great uncle Arthur who never thought of going to war until the Liverpool bombing raids of the Second World War. In May 1941, he joins up. Deployed to Singapore, his ship is destroyed by Japanese dive bombers and he is declared missing. This extraordinary true story of survival is a dramatic tour- de- force.

Tickets £10

Wednesday 3rd July 7.30

The Dawn Wall

Legendary free climber Tommy Caldwell tries to get over heartbreak by scaling 3000ft of an impossible rock face, the Dawn Wall of El Capitan.

Tickets £4

Tolmen Movies

Saturday 6th July 6.30 for 7.30

William Dalrymple

Multi award-winning William Dalrymple is the bestselling author of many books including In Xanadu, White Mughals, and most recently his collaborative book, Koh-I-Noor. Born in Scotland he now lives in Delhi with his family. A 'master story-teller' his work is meticulously researched. This is a rare opportunity to hear him speak in Cornwall.

Tickets £5

Saturday 13th July 7.30

London Philharmonic Skiffle Orchestra

The LPSO are much more than a skiffle band! They are a musical/comedy showband following in the tradition of Spike Jones and his City Slickers but with a modern slant.

To the LPSO skiffle means "anything goes" as long as it is musical, entertaining and fun. Their performances are energetic, colourful, bizarre, tuneful, virtuoso and hilarious.

Tickets £11

Tolmen Summer Gallery

April/May - 'Character and Setting' - an exhibition of etchings by John Howard RE - from his time as artist in residence at Birmingham Repertory Theatre, and Hugo Jones - whose portraits capture expression through line, finding movement in the contours of the face.

June/July- Contemporary still-life paintings by Si Hamling who studied painting and printmaking at Falmouth School of Art .

The Tolmen Centre Box Office 01326 341353
Fore Street, Constantine, Nr Falmouth, TR11 5AA
Managers: Charlie and Barbara Pugh
Most tickets now available online via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

The Tolmen Centre

Summer 2019

Constantine's Arts
and
Community Centre

Wednesday 24th April 7.30

Leave No Trace

After living off the grid in Oregon for years, traumatized military veteran Will (Ben Foster) and his teenage daughter, Tom, are picked up by social services and forced to integrate back into society. "deeply intelligent story of love and survival in the wild"...The Guardian

Tickets £4

Tolmen Movies

Sunday 28th April 7.30

Talisk

Mohsen Amini – the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards' Musician of the Year 2018, Hayley Keenan and Graeme Armstrong seamlessly meld concertina, fiddle and guitar to produce a multi-layered, enthralling signature that has effortlessly captivated audiences from the USA to Australia, and throughout the UK. Appearances at world-leading festivals – including the Cambridge Folk Festival, WOMAD UK and five successive outings at Glasgow's Celtic Connections – have amassed a die-hard following.

"The musicianship is phenomenal, the enthusiasm infectious."

The Scotsman

Tickets £11

Tolmen Cafe

The cafe will be open before most of the films and shows. Telephone booking essential: 01326 341353

Thursday 2nd May 7.30

1927 Theatre Roots

A preview showing. We need to know who we were, so we can imagine who we might be.

Acclaimed theatre company 1927 (Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea, The Animals and Children Took to the Streets) has unearthed a series of rarely told folktales that offer a glimpse into imaginations from a pre-industrialized age. Tyrannical ogres, magical birds, and very, very fat cats are brought to life with the company's signature fusion of handcrafted animation and storytelling, with a live score. We are incredibly lucky to have this preview showing of their newest work before it premieres in America. Tickets £10

Wednesday 8th May 7.30

Shoplifters

Coming home on a freezing night after a hard day stealing from supermarkets, Osamu and Shota come across a little girl shivering in the cold. Impulsively, they take the poor homeless waif in for a few days. A complex, subtle, mysterious film that builds to the most extraordinary surprise ending.

Tickets £4

Tolmen Movies

Wednesday 15th May 7.30

Transition Constantine present

In Our Hands - Seeding Change

This film explores the daily reality of nine real life farmers who refuse to be ground down by the machinery of big agribusiness. A way of farming that will bring "life to the soil, a fair wage to the farmer and a flavour to the tomato." Tickets £4

Saturday 18th May 7.30

Kim and Andrew Lowings

The daughter and father duo form half of the band Kim Lowings and The Greenwood. As a duo they showcase their songwriting and the intricacies of their acoustic sound with a warm and captivating stage presence. The sound draws together mountain dulcimer, guitar, bouzouki and piano to resonate with Kim's lyric writing and arrangements of traditional folk song. 'Absolutely captivating.' R2 magazine Tickets £9, Children £4.50

Wednesday 22nd May 7.30

Apostasy

This powerful film was nominated for a Bafta for outstanding British debut in 2019. A faithful Jehovah's Witness is forced to shun her own sister because of a religious transgression. Gradually she starts to question her belief. "a supremely intelligent and gripping drama."...The Guardian

Tickets £4

Tolmen Movies

Friday 7th June 7.30

Helford River Children's Sailing Trust present Medical Maelstrom

We are thrilled to welcome back the hilarious Medical Maelstrom in an evening of musical entertainment in aid of HRCST. Medical Maelstrom are three doctors, who also happen to be rather good at music. Expect an evening of song, reflections on the human condition and a large dose of humour to lift the spirits. Tickets £12, Children £5

