

Wednesday 13th September 7.30pm

A United Kingdom

The story of King Seretse Khama of Botswana and how his loving but controversial marriage to a British white woman, Ruth Williams, put his kingdom into political and diplomatic turmoil.

Tickets £4 Tolmen Movies

Sunday 17th September 7.30pm

Martin Simpson

The Tolmen Centre is thrilled to be presenting world renowned guitarist, singer and songwriter Martin Simpson.

The remarkable intimate solo performances Martin gives go from strength to strength. Every gig is a masterclass giving rapt audiences passion, sorrow, love, beauty, tragedy and majesty through his playing. In this show, he will be playing songs from his brand new album, 'Trails and Tribulations' as well as older material.

*"One of the virtuoso instrumentalists of the English music scene", 'Sounds better than ever' ***** 4 Stars The Guardian*

Tickets £12.50

Wednesday 27th September 7.30pm

Their Finest

Gemma Arterton shines in a big-hearted and witty drama about the making of a second world war propaganda film. The humour is fortified by sterling work from Bill Nighy, deliciously vain as ageing star Ambrose Hilliard.

Tickets £4 Tolmen Movies

Saturday 7th October 7.30pm

The Conductor

Shostakovich, writing his life affirming 7th Symphony, flees the Leningrad siege leaving his less talented student contemporary Karl to attempt to survive starvation and loss and miraculously conduct and broadcast the symphony among the ruins. A concert-play based on the novel by Sarah Quigley.

Tickets £10, £8

Wednesday 11th October 7.30pm

The Levelling

Hope Dickson Leach's assured feature debut about an intimate family tragedy set on a struggling English farm.

Tickets £4 Tolmen Movies

Thursday 19th October 7.30pm

Vamos Theatre

Finding Joy

Danny, a teenage dabbler in petty crime, starts to care for Joy, whose nocturnal wanderings and forgetfulness worry her family. The show brilliantly conveys her fear on finding herself alone, in her nightie, in a busy street. It also conjures up her past, in particular during the Blitz. It's an unconventional companionship between Joy and Danny, who find love and laughter against the odds. "Finding Joy" is an intensely emotional and enjoyable show.

Tickets £12, £10, Family £34 (children 12+)

In association with Carn to Cove

Wednesday 25th October 7.30pm

Hidden Figures

Behind the men who went to the Moon were three brilliant black women who never received their due recognition – until now. "Hidden Figures captures all the grit, grace and brilliance of its three female protagonists."

Tickets £4 Tolmen Movies

Friday 27th October 6.30 for 7.30pm

Constantine Book Club Plus

An Evening with Liz Fenwick

Liz describes herself as "writer, ex-pat expert, wife, mother of three, and dreamer turned doer..." Liz is the award winning author of many books set in Cornwall including The Cornish House and A Cornish Affair. The Returning Tide was published in March 2017.

Tickets £5

Sunday 29th October 7.30pm

John Etheridge and Vimala Rowe

We are delighted to welcome back legendary guitarist John Etheridge, this time accompanied by extravagantly talented singer Vimala Rowe. They will be featuring numbers from their much-lauded album, "Out of the Sky." They have developed a highly personal repertoire from an eclectic mix of music, original and traditional.

"John Etheridge has explored many genres, styles and legacies in his career, but his curiosity never dimmed, and in Vimala Rowe he has found a singer of quite astonishing versatility and adaptability" – London Jazz News

Tickets £12

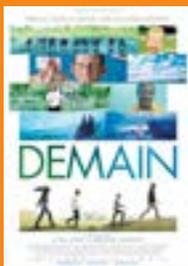

Wednesday 8th November 7.30

Transition Constantine present

Demain

Awarded the "Best Documentary Cesar Award, the film "Demain" is about what should, or could, be our future.

Following the publication of a study showing that part of the human race could disappear by 2100, French Film-maker Cyril Dion set out to investigate in ten countries how this could still be avoided.

Tickets £4

Friday 10th November 7.30 pm

Rough Island Band

A contemporary folk quartet playing original music inspired by the landscapes, people and stories of the Isles of Scilly. Incorporating a wide range of instrumental and vocal textures, RIB craft a personal and contemporary sound, firmly rooted in the folk tradition.

Tickets £11, £10 Children £5

Wednesday 22nd November 7.30 pm

The Other Side of Hope

With his previous film Le Havre, and this very sympathetic and charming new work, The Other Side of Hope, Kaurismäki has made refugees his focus.

"A deeply humane film, as well as a quietly hilarious one. "...Time Out.

Tickets £4

Tolmen Movies

Tolmen Gallery

From September 2nd -October 20th

Dougal Jeffries and Katherine Murdoch

Two medics - one retired, the other at the start of her career - are showing paintings inspired by their travels.

Friday 1st December 7.30 pm

Publick Transport

We are Brontë

We Are Brontë is a piece of hilarious visual theatre inspired by the real and imaginary worlds of Yorkshire's literary siblings, presented in Publick Transport's irreverent style. Physical theatre collides with stand-up, clowning and improvisation as two performers deconstruct Gothic themes of love, madness, repression and revenge. Part play, part enquiry into the act of putting on a play, this is no ordinary Brontë adaptation.

In association with Carn to Cove

Tickets £9, £7, Family £25

Wednesday 6th December 7.30pm

La La Land

The story of Mia, an aspiring actress, and Sebastian, a dedicated jazz musician, who are struggling to make ends meet in a city known for crushing hopes and breaking hearts. La La Land is a happy, sweet-natured movie – something to give you a vitamin-D boost of sunshine.

Tickets £4

Tolmen Movies

The Tolmen Centre Box Office: 01326 341353
Fore Street, Constantine, Nr Falmouth, TR115AA
Managers: Charlie and Barbara Pugh
Most tickets now available online via www.tolmencentre.co.uk
e-mail : tolmen@constantinecornwall.com

The Tolmen Centre

Autumn 2017

Constantine's Arts
and
Community Centre