

Sunday 14th January 7.30pm

Worklight Theatre

Monster

After his brilliant show Labels, Joe Sellman Leava returns with a stunning study of male aggression asking why some men lash out in anger and others stay in control. In an amazingly fast moving performance, he channels his own irritation at his chirpy, cheery girlfriend, Mike Tyson's tirades, Patrick Stewart fearfully recollecting the domestic violence that scarred his childhood and passages of Shakespeare, brimming with spite and anger. It is a thrilling performance. Tickets £10, £8

Wednesday 17th January 7.30

Frantz

Adrien, a French veteran of the 1914-18 war, shows up mysteriously in Anna's town, placing flowers on her late fiance Frantz's grave. Gradually she gets closer to the melancholy young man, learning of his deep wartime friendship with Frantz. Tickets £4 Tolmen Movies

Sunday 21st January 7.30pm

The Angels of Fore Street

On holiday in Cornwall they crashed the car and lost the dog, but had the best Christmas ever. A heartwarming

Pipeline Theatre

community show made with and by people from Camborne and Redruth. Tickets £6, £3, £15 family

Saturday 27th January 7.30pm

Luke Wright

Frankie Vah

Following the multi-award-winning What I Learned From Johnny Bevan, Luke Wright's new verse play deals with love, loss, and belief, against a backdrop of 80s politics and music. Simon, a vicar's son from Essex, has become Frankie Vah and replaced religion with radical politics and ranting poetry. He and his beloved girlfriend Eve live in love and penury, but when Frankie goes on tour with indie darlings The Midnight Shift, his new world is put to the test. 'Pulsating, poetic storytelling' The Guardian Tickets £10, £8

Wednesday 31st January 7.30pm

Miss Sloane

In the high-stakes world of political power-brokers, Elizabeth Sloane (Jessica Chastain) is the most sought after and formidable lobbyist in D.C. But when she takes on the most powerful opponent of her career, she finds winning may come at too high a price. Tickets £4 Tolmen Movies

Saturday 10th February 7.30pm

Martha Tilston

Martha Tilston, Penryn-based singer-songwriter has an international reputation. She will be playing material from her latest album, 'Nomad', as well as old favourites. Backed by her superb band, Martha's crystal-clear vocals will inspire and captivate, and her charismatic stage presence will delight her audience. "She captures both the harshness and the enchantment of life" - The Guardian.

Tickets £11, £10, £5 Children

Wednesday 14th February 7.30pm

After the Storm

A once successful author now working as a private detective gambles away his money and tries to reconnect with his estranged family. "A story of bittersweet regrets and acceptance of life's disappointments coloured with gentle humour and observation". The Guardian

Tickets £4

Tolmen Movies

Saturday 24th February 7.30pm

Theatre ad Infinitum

Translunar Paradise

After his wife passes away, William escapes to a paradise of fantasy and past memories, a place far from the reality of his grief. Returning from beyond the grave, Rose revisits her widowed companion to perform one last act of love: to help him let go. A multi award winning and most beautifully exquisite show. It is truly unmissable.

Tickets £12, £10

Wednesday 28th February 7.30pm

Wind River

A veteran tracker with the Fish and Wildlife Service helps to investigate the murder of a young Native American woman, and uses the case as a means of seeking redemption for an earlier act of irresponsibility which ended in tragedy.

Tickets £4

Tolmen Movies

Saturday 10th March 7.30

Edd Bateman's West African Love Affair

Edd Bateman joined his first African band at 14, playing bass, and went on to work with Senegalese and Congolese musicians around Europe and in Africa. Now he draws together 15 years of musical experience into this African group of musicians and a set of original music reflecting the joyful heartbeat of West African dance music.

Tickets £11, £10

Wednesday 14th March 7.30

A Man Called Ove

An unlikely friendship forms between angry old man Ove and the boisterous family who move in next door. A heartwarming tale of unreliable first impressions and a gentle reminder that life is sweeter when it's shared.

Tickets £4

Tolmen Movies

Sunday 18th March 7.30 pm

The Pretend Men

Police Cops in Space

The multi award-winning comedy trio are back with their critically acclaimed EdFringe sell-out comedy; set in the most dangerous place on Earth...Space.

Sammy Johnson, the last Police Cop in the universe, blasts off in an unmanned escape pod. Now on a distant planet, Sammy must team up with Alien fighter pilot Ranger and his trusty Cyborg C9 as they embark on an intergalactic adventure to find Earth, avenge his father and become the best damn Police Cop in space.

"Big, consistent laughs..it's not just funny, it's exhilarating" The Guardian

Tickets £10, £8

Friday 23rd March 7.30 pm

Budapest Cafe Orchestra

Led by jazz violin superstar Christian Garrick, the BCO evokes vivid images of Tzigane fiddle maestros, Budapest café life and gypsy campfires. As fantastically exciting as they are musically impressive, they journey far and wide across the Balkans and Russia, Klezmer, Romanian Doinas, Hungarian Czardas. With immense skill and profound musicianship, they have won acclaim from fans, fellow musicians and critics alike for their electrifying and entertaining shows.

Tickets £11, £10

Wednesday 28th March 7.30pm

The Sense of an Ending

Tony Webster (Jim Broadbent) leads a reclusive existence until long buried secrets from his past force him to face the flawed recollections of his younger self, and the devastating consequences of decisions made a lifetime ago.

Tickets £4

Tolmen Movies

Tolmen Cafe

The cafe will be open before most of the films and shows. Telephone booking essential: 01326 341353

The Tolmen Centre Box Office 01326 341353
Fore Street, Constantine, Nr Falmouth, TR115AA
Managers: Charlie and Barbara Pugh Most tickets now available online via www.tolmencentre.co.uk
e-mail : tolmen@constantinecornwall.com

The Tolmen Centre

Spring 2018

Constantine's Arts and
Community Centre