

Wednesday 18th November 7.30 pm

Song, Sung, Blue

Movie Café 6pm. One pot supper no booking.

Based on a true story, two down-on-their-luck musicians form a joyous Neil Diamond tribute band, proving it's never too late to find love and follow your dreams.

Tickets £5 on the door ImageTMDB

Wednesday 2nd December 7.30pm

Movie Café 6pm. One pot supper no booking.

The Shop around the Corner

Two employees at a gift shop can barely stand one another, without realising that they are falling in love through the post as each other's anonymous pen pal..

Tolmen Movies ImageTMDB

Tickets £5 on the door

Sunday 6th December 7.30pm

Gigspanner

The Gigspanner Trio is the beating heart from which all other lineups have evolved. This concert is an extra special one as the Trio will be showcasing pieces from their long waited new album. Described by Folk Radio UK as one of the "most quietly brilliant sets of musicians in the folk world and beyond", they take self-penned material along with music rooted in the British Isles and beyond, produce richly atmospheric arrangements.

Tickets £18, £15, £9. via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

Tolmen Gallery

September 6th -25th October

Natalie Wareing and Chris Smedley

Natalie Wareing and Chris Smedley Will be showcasing a selection of works produced over the last year since returning to their passion for the creative process, they have been exploring and experimenting with different mediums, techniques and inspirations. Private View 12th Sept.

Friday 11th, & Saturday 12th December 7.30pm

Pipeline Theatre

George and the Drag Queen

Pipeline Theatre's new show, is: a bittersweet, bonkers cake-mix of the epic and the outlandish, beaten together with the everyday, and the plain silly. A village fête – bunting, cakes, outsize veg, and wasps. Two bantering first-aid volunteers setting up their tent – George, a stand-in Grandpa for Maddy; and Maddy, a stand-in Granddaughter for George. Oh, and one Lebanese Drag Queen – Eliana Sultana, booked to do the raffle, getting changed in the corner. In a 'twist of fate', their stories entwine with explosive results. Why has a Drag Queen been booked for a village fete? Where has George seen Eliana's face before? And just how allergic is Eliana to wasps?

Tickets £12, £10, £8(14+) via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

Wednesday 16th December 7pm

Trengilly Singers Christmas Concert

Our locally based mixed choir under director Melanie Uren brings you a seasonal concert of songs and carols. Mulled wine and mince pies to put you in the mood.

Sunday 20th December 3pm

Matt Robbins

Flyboy is Alone Again this Christmas

The show is a collection of songs, short stories, shadow-puppets, animations and audience puppet-making. It's for adults, and children who don't mind stories without too many happy endings. Come and hear about Flyboy (half-boy / half-fly) and Mothboy (he's similar), the Planet of the Haunted Snowmen, and what happened when Gravity didn't get invited to the Christmas party. This is Matthew's Christmas show, so come and listen to stories that only get told once a year.

Tickets £12, £6, £28 family via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

The Tolmen Centre

Fore Street, Constantine, Nr Falmouth, TR11 5AA

Show Tickets available via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

Tolmen Movies tickets are on the door.

The Tolmen Centre

Autumn 2026

Constantine's Arts and Community Centre

Sunday 13th September 7.30

Max and Veronica

Max and Veronica are acclaimed interpreters of early American roots music, blending ragtime, country blues and early jazz and hillbilly music sounds with contemporary energy and infectious humour. Winners of the European Blues Challenge 2013, they have natural on-stage chemistry, playful banter and quick wit.

Tickets £17, £14, £7 via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

Saturday 26th September 7.30

Fifi la Mer and Oliver Wilby

"Let us take you to Paris" offers an immersive experience of French music featuring iconic works from artists like Edith Piaf, Charles Trenet, Django Reinhardt, Sidney Bechet and Serge Gainsbourg. The show is guided by Parisian born Fifi who sings and plays accordion and Wilby, who plays clarinet, tenor saxophone and accordion.

Tickets £15, £13 via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

Wednesday 30th September 7.30 pm

Movie Café 6pm. One pot supper no booking.

The Secret Agent

Marcelo, a technology expert on the run, travels to Recife during Carnival to reunite with his son but soon realizes that the city is unsafe. Winner best director and actor at Cannes

Tolmen Movies

Tickets £5 on the door

ImageTMDb

Friday 9th October 7.30 pm

Cornish cheese and biscuits from 6.30pm.

An Evening with Patrick Gale

Patrick Gale has lived in Cornwall since 1987. His latest novel 'Love Lane' revolves around an intriguing, but incomplete story of love and secrets drawn from his own family history. From the rural plains of Canada to 1950s Liverpool and Yorkshire, it is a searing portrayal of escape and entrapment, and a powerful exploration of what home and family can really be.

Tickets £7.50 via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

Saturday 10th October 7.30pm

Jack Rutter

Yorkshire folk singer Jack Rutter is one of the standout voices of the folk, roots and acoustic music scene in recent years. His soaring vocal, powerhouse guitar and bouzouki playing and masterful arrangements of traditional songs and contemporary covers have enthralled audiences far and wide.

'An outstanding performer.'—The Independent

Tickets £15, £12, £7.50 via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

Wednesday 14th October 7.30pm

The Bride

Movie Café 6pm. One pot supper no booking.

Lonely Frankenstein travels to 1930s Chicago to ask a groundbreaking scientist to revive a murdered young woman and The Bride is born.

Tickets £5 on the door ImageTMDb

Saturday 17th October 7.30pm

Joe Selman-Leava

Copycat

Does AI spell the end of humanity, or the dawn of a new utopia? Fringe First Winner Joe Sellman-Leava (Labels, Fanboy) might be a technophobe, but he's going to try and find out! Using innovative design and a whirlwind of uncanny impressions, Joe tells the story of a teacher, a student, and a copycat dictator, to examine the links between art, fascism and rapid technological change. Thoughtful, layered show encompassing impressive impressionsNatasha Tripney The Stage*

Tickets £15, £13 via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

Wednesday 4th November 7:30 pm

Movie Café 6pm. One pot supper no booking.

The Man Who Knew Infinity

Growing up poor in Madras, India, Srinivasa Ramanujan Iyengar earns admittance to Cambridge University during WWI, where he becomes a pioneer in mathematical theories.

Tolmen Movies ImageTMDb

Tickets £5 on the door

Saturday 7th November 7.30pm

Shane Pendergast and Lucy Farrell

Lucy Farrell, a BBC Radio 2 Folk Award winner, is celebrated for her poetic songwriting, unconventional melodies, and the crystalline clarity of her voice. Canadian Shane Pendergast carries forward a long lineage of Maritime storytellers. Together, they embody the living, breathing spirit of folk music: rooted in tradition, yet unafraid to tread new ground.

Tickets £16, £12, £8 via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

Sunday 8th November 3pm

Lung and a Half Full Theatre With thanks to Carn to Cove

Tales for an Unruly Audience

Lung and a Half Full Theatre are proud to present 'Tales for an Unruly Audience,' a spectacular performance of myth, mirth, and magic, with a selection of ancient tales performed for your viewing pleasure by the Lord of Unreason himself: George Attwill.

Tickets £12, £8, family £30 via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

Saturday 14th November 7.30

Hannah Maxwell

Turn your Fing Phones Off

Fresh from a sellout run at Edinburgh fringe, we welcome back Hannah with her acclaimed new show.

"Turn Your Fing Phones Off" sounds like an instruction, but is actually a note to self. It's her own smartphone she is worried about: not only the hold it has on her, but the data she provides it with....As she goes into digital detox, she retreats from doomscrolling and dopamine hits, but has an even greater fear of what she sees as a fundamental assault on democracy. In a tremendous show, she delivers this analysis with equal parts fervour and merriment." Mark Fisher, The Guardian

Tickets £14 via www.tolmencentre.co.uk

Cafe Tolmen

The cafe will be open before most of the theatre and music shows. Booking essential. Please phone Barbara on 01326 340630

